Description

Superb early 19th century pine settle in excellent antique condition with original stained finish. This superb rustic settle has the classic design of winged sides with curved, shaped arm panels. The back goes down to the floor for additional stability and is panelled with a top rail. Like all antiques there are imperfections however it is a solid sturdy settle and stands level with no looseness or wobbles. This settle doesn't just serve a functional purpose, it's a statement piece that serves as a beautiful contrast to modern interiors.
