Description

A gorgeous antique Victorian buckle style bracelet made from Montrose grey agate and silver. Made in Scotland around 1880 by an unknown craftsman. Although unmarked it has tested as silver and its central design is shaped as a stylised buckle. It closes with a tight clasp and the inner measurement is 16.5cm diameter. At almost 150 years old this bracelet is in excellent condition. A very useable and collectible piece of Scottish agate or pebble jewellery. WEIGHT; 44 grams Free delivery in the UK. Payment by bank transfer, card over the phone, PayPal or Klarna. Using Klarna payments can be split over three months.
