Description

Superb Art Deco Design Val Saint Lambert Plum Vase by Joseph Simon * Belgian Early 20th Century circa 1930 * A very fine deco design * Designed by Joseph Simon (1874-1960) * Made by Cristalleries du Val-Saint-Lambert * Layered crystal(1)* (see description below) * H: 29cm (11.4") Di: 19cm (7.5") This stunning Joseph Simon-designed Val Saint Lambert Plum Vase from around 1930 is a beautiful example of Art Deco glassware. Val Saint Lambert, a renowned Belgian glass company, was known for its high-quality crystal pieces. This particular vase is notable for its rich plum colour and elegant design, which reflects the craftsmanship and artistic trends of the early 20th Century. The Liège-based glass company Val Saint-Lambert reached its peak on the eve of the First World War, when more than 5.000 workers manufactured some 200.000 objects daily. Val Saint-Lambert was able to translate high-quality handiwork to an industrial scale thanks to the well-oiled collaboration between designers, glass-blowers, polishers and engravers. The production of the characteristic 'double coloured and cut crystal' was launched in 1908 and placed the company on the world map. This technique ma...
