Description

Seascape of Ships At Broadstairs at Low Tide signed John Callow 1807 * English 1807 * Signed John Callow(1)* 1807 * Original detail verso and under glass * Superb condition * H: 36cm (14.2") W: 71cm (28") A Very good and detailed seascape of ships at rest at low tide in Broadstairs. Signed and dated by celebrated quality artist John Callow 1807; original detail verso and under glass. Callow's style of painting was formed on that of his master and elder brother, William, though he devoted himself to a different range of subjects. He excelled in sea-pieces more than in landscapes. The compulsory devotion of his time chiefly to teaching impeded the development of his own powers, so that his later productions never fulfilled the promise of some of his earlier works. He painted diligently, however, and exhibited at the yearly exhibition of the Old Water-Colour Society. His style of teaching was excellent, at once simple, lucid, and logical, and he always maintained the superiority of transparent over body colour. He left a great number of studies prepared for the use of his pupils, which were sold by auction after his death. Several of these have since been printed in co...
