Description

Antique Buff Terracotta Pair of Tazza Urns, 19thC without Socle Bases, 44cm diameter. A superbly stylish pair of 19th century buff, English buff terracotta tazza urn tops, without socle bases which sit well and ideal interior or outdoor planters or table displays, fruit bowls or bottle coolers etc.,. The 44cm diameter urns display a handsome, timeworn patination to authenticate character and age which we date to circa 1860-1890, and feature an acanthus floral decoration to the top edge and gadroon pattern to the base. The urns stand at 26cm tall with flat bottoms, meaning these sit well upon a surface and allow a versatile use. A wonderful pair of antique urns or planters with a considerable decorative appeal for indoor or outdoor uses, interior design pieces that can enhance a classic or contemporary space.
