Description

A tiny gold early 19th century mourning brooch with a glazed centrepiece of neatly braided hair. The plain inner frame is a slightly rosy gold, making a lovely contrast to the richer yellow gold outer frame which is carved with decorative flowers and leaves. The brooch fixes with a simple C clasp. In very good antique condition; there is a little abrasion to the face of the bevelled glass surface. Unmarked, tests as nine-carat gold. Size: Approximately 1.8 x 1.5cm. Weight: 2.1g.
