Description

A truly rare poster from the officially issued monochrome version of the 1930 World Cup poster bearing the all-important official stamp of the Comité Ejecutivo of the governing body of football in Uruguay. The 1930 FIFA World Cup was the inaugural FIFA World Cup, the world championship award for men's national association football teams. The tournament was held in Uruguay from 13th to 30th July, 1930. Dimensions: 52 × 28 cm Condition: Very good for age devoid of tears, creases or excessive age-toning and with a few printer's roller-marks that provide the poster with its own innate provenance and authenticity. The 1930 World Cup Poster. Two types of posters were commissioned by the Uruguayan Football Federation, AUF for the tournament. They were the Official Poster in colour (78.5 × 38 cm; 38 × 15 in) and a smaller monochrome version of the Official Poster with the official stamp of the Comité Ejecutivo (52 × 28 cm; 20 1/2 by 11 in) designed by the Uruguayan graphic artist, Guillermo Laborde who had by that time acquired an international reputation. The colour posters were to be given to the participating teams and officials connected with the staging of the event and dignit...
