Description

Extremely beautiful 18th Century Demi Lune Tea Table of exceptional untouched colour and patina. The top in two matched pieces made from the finest quality solid Mahogany timbers having box wood stringing inlaid into the edge. The frieze with matched cross grain Mahogany veneers and black and white line inlay to the bottom edge. The square taper legs are a masterclass in craftsmanship with neatly carved fluted panel and spade foot cut from the solid and not applied as the vast majority are. The tops of the legs inlaid with sand shaded oval fan. In good original condition throughout and retaining the original hinges, a real gem.
