Cupboards to either side and three deep drawers to the centre section. From a collection of Art Deco furniture at the 3000 sq.ft. Showroom and Warehouse in Marsh Green, Edenbridge, Kent O1959 561234. We have specialised in Arts and Crafts Movement and Art Deco for 24 years and wrote the chapters 'Art Deco Furniture' and 'Art Deco Ceramics' for Judith Miller's book '20th Century Design.' EPSTEIN: The quality of the furniture produced by the Epstein brothers of London's East End is recognised as among the finest in the British Art Deco style – both in terms of design and production. Dr Roger Shuff, a research historian who has worked with The Design Gallery for 20 years, is one of the UK's leading experts on the firm and explains: 'Morris (also known as Solomon) Epstein (1870-1940), a Russian immigrant cabinet maker arrived in London's East End in 1890, and subsequently married Katie Fellner (1882-1960) in 1901. Their children included six sons born in the early years of the twentieth century: Reuben (1902-1965); Isaac – known as Sidney (1904...
