Description

Wonderful French Walnut Bookcase / Display Cabinet from the fabulous Victorian era. The top of this bookcase has beautifully carved mouldings as does the glazed doors. The doors (complete with working lock and key) open to a shelved interior. The interior is clean and covered with an attractive grey lined satin like fabric. Like all antiques there are imperfections however this is a solid, well proportioned bookcase with great rich colouring and amazing patina that will display your books or treasures with style, the perfect addition to any home.
