Description

Absolutely beautiful Music Box, complete with six cylinders playing six airs, each as per tune sheet. Contained in a fine rosewood case with satinwood inlay. The hinged lid with a Romanesque marquetry medallion, opening to the movement, which is in excellent condition, over a drawer with provision for storing six cylinders. The finely turned legs with the original Victorian casters can be removed for ease of transport. Furthermore, the Music Box itself can be taken off and detached from the drawer section. A rare and beautiful thing which would grace the finest of homes. For other music boxes and items of interest please view our stock page here or visit our website. www.frankcraigantiques.com.
