Description

A handsome early 19th Cent library table with a look of Gillows about it. It is in nice quality mahogany with rosewood banding to the top. It has a pair of drawers to one side and dummy drawers to the reverse. The table stands on very fine reeded legs with original brass casters. It has retained it's original locks and wooden knobs (one missing) It is in good structural condition but does need a bit of restoration and a good wax.
