Description

This is a lovely Victorian cast and brass double bed in nice original condition that dates from around 1870. The original side irons are present and this has a new sturdy timber latt base so simply requires a standard double mattress. It is raised on its original porcelain castors which are in very good order. A very smart bed ready for use. The bed measures cms high at the head and cms high at the base and is 140 cms wide by 210 cms long. UK delivery can be arranged with our careful furniture courier and costs £65 plus vat to most destinations.
