Description

A Regency Rosewood Sofa Table, C1830, 90cm Extending to 147cm. A handsome rosewood sofa table, circa 1830 with 2 frieze drawers and pedestal with concealed castors. A very fine early 19th century, English antique table of elegant proportions and adaptable size. With figured walnut veneer top, over 2 green felt lined frieze drawers and octagonal column pedestal to its base and original castors beneath. A striking English antique sofa table or hall table, writing table etc..., the top measures 89-90cm width with 2 drop ends which open to 147cm. Presented in mostly excellent, original condition without evidence of any historic structural repairs. Some minimal areas of missing beeding to the front edge as featured in photos, a marginal colour shade difference to the top and drop ends, due to the ends mostly not being opened and less exposure to light and a repair to the central grain on the top, likely due to atmospheric changes but very minimal and not immediately noticeable. We may decide to put into workshop and have the above mentioned areas corrected and relist and revised price but we feel it is mostly excellent and very fit for purpose and priced sensibly to r...
