Description

A stunning Arts and Crafts period display cabinet by Shapland and Petter of Barnstaple. Of excellent construction in solid mahogany and decorated with profuse floral marquetry inlay throughout depicting lillies, lotus flowers, buds and butterflies. With a glazed central cabinet door which opens to access a shelved interior replete with its original green velvet lining. The door is decorated with a beautiful brass filigree panel. All flanked by a pair of cupboard doors with mirror-backed recesses above. All doors are lockable (key supplied) and locks bear the makers mark "S & P. B". Beneath the central door is a single drawer. Cleaned and waxed in our workshops and now offered for sale in very good original condition. A rare opportunity to acquire one of Shapland and Petters finest pieces of furniture. For reference see Daryl Bennetts definitive book, page 54, Dimensions: Width 137cms Depth 48cms Height 194cms The Shapland and Petter factory was established by cabinetmaker Henry Shapland (1823 – 1909), following a trip to America in 1848. While there, he saw an ingenious new machine which he realised could be used for cabinetmaking. Upon his return to Barnstaple, he re...
