Description

A pair of early 20th century mahogany bedside table lamps in the Georgian style, each with a bulbholder fitted to a campana shaped sconce over a turned and fluted shaft with a spiral fluted lower section, on a domed turned base. English, circa 1910. Condition: Very good, both lamps are in very good condition with no damage or marks, they stand well and have a pleasing warm colour and patina. Each lamp has been rewired using a new bulbholder, braided flex and a new plug fitted with a 3amp fuse, with two metres of spare flex.
