Description

An attractive and good quality 'Smoker's Bow' or 'Captain's' armchair dating from the early 20th century. It has a comfortable wide and deep elm seat with broad arms, turned spindles and turned legs joined by a double stretcher. The rear of the seat is stamped with the maker's initials 'JS' below a crown which indicates it was probably made for Government or military supply. It is approximately 30 1/2" (78cm) high and it is 24" (61cm) wide across the arms. The seat is approximately 17" (43cm) high and 18 1/2" (47cm) deep. It is in good condition for its age and displays well. It has developed a lovely aged patina and is a strong and sturdy chair. The chair is not without a few small marks and signs of age but no major damages or anything detrimental. It has been cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
