Description

Early Heals Antique Oak Newlyn Dressing Table This is a fabulous, large scale antique Newlyn dressing table by Heals of London around 1880-90. Very well made in solid oak and featuring four short drawers to the chest of drawer base, all have the original Guild of Handicraft iron work handles. Standing on well turned legs that are joined by a stretcher. In superb original condition and in the original finish. To this early Newlyn range antique oak dressing table is a mounted vanity mirror that can be angled to suit. It has an architectural housing with corbel blocks and a shelf above two small trinket drawers. Complete with the early Heals oval brass makers label to the back. A lovely and very original example of a piece of Heals Newlyn range of bedroom furniture. Dimensions Height: 159cm (63.10") Width: 137cm (54.37") Depth: 63cm (25.00")
