Description

Early Rare Model Heals Antique Oak Dresser – Labelled Not many of these early Heals of London antique oak dressers were ever made, they are listed in the Heals catalogues and date to 1905. This Heals antique oak dresser is in two parts, the top section that features an open, slatted oak back plate rest with numerous lovely original oak turned mug hanging hooks above. This section locates onto the dresser base that has two short drawers over two panelled cupboard doors. All have the fabulous large original Heals turned disc handles. Inside is a solid oak shaped shelf, the sides are well panelled and the earliest Heals makers label is inset into a drawer. In excellent clean condition throughout, a good early example of Heals oak furniture. Ideal for a smaller kitchen / dining room. Dimensions Height: 132cm (52.38") Width: 122cm (48.41") Depth: 50cm (19.84")
