Description

Art Deco Marble Effect Glass Table Lamp This stylish Art Deco table lamp features a mushroom-shaped mottled glass shade which creates an elegant marble effect, complemented by a matching circular column and stepped base. A subtle patinated brass ring offers a nice contrast to the glass. The lamp emits a warm, ambient glow, but its timeless design ensures it looks just as attractive when unlit. It has been rewired with an inline switch and PAT tested for safety. Photographed with a 5W (40W) B22 golf ball bulb (included). Condition: Wear commensurate with age, including small scratches and a very fine hairline crack at the top that does not travel through the whole shade, it's stable and secure.
