Description

This fine and impressive vintage necklace has been hand crafted using solid 14ct gold. The entire necklace was handmade in the 1920's in Germany and is ornamented with an articulating design, composed from conjoined squares and oblong links accented with graduating vertical style terminals. This substantial gold and diamond necklace secures to the reverse with a push fit clasp, and benefits from the added security of a figure of eight hinged catch. The necklace, has fifteen white links each set with a single graduating round diamond with a centre diamond and a large centre diamond drop. The diamonds in white bead box settings range from approximately 0.01ct, 0.03ct, 0.04ct, 0.05ct, 0.10ct, 0.15ct, 1 x 0.25ct, and 2 x 1.26ct. The diamond above the drop weigh approximately 0.15ct and the single drop 1.25ct. The gross diamond weight estimated as approximately 2.66ct. The large drop diamond- Assessed clarity: SI2 Assessed colour: H/I range. The gold is stamped '585 ME'. Valued as 14kt solid gold set.
