Description

An extremely scarce William IV Scottish silver snuff box. Made in Edinburgh in 1831 by John Blackwood Caw a rare maker. The top is a cast relief of men playing cards in a tavern, probably after David Teniers the Younger, the Dutch artist. The box has a full set of hallmarks inside and the interior is gilded. It is in excellent condition with minimal rubbing to the high points. This is a well known item, it features in Eric Delieb's book "Silver Boxes" and in "British Silver Boxes, the Lion Collection". With such great provenance it is a valuable item. WEIGHT; 102 grams or 3.3 ozs approx. Free delivery in the UK. Payment by bank transfer, card over the phone, PayPal or Klarna. Using Klarna payments can be split over three months.
