Description

Early 20thC 2-Tier Mahogany Occasional Table by Manchip & Sons, Bridgwater. An attractive small mahogany piece from a well-known local maker, dating from Edwardian or slightly later times and in good condition, having a square top with canted corners and chamfered edges, on canted supports and with swagged frieze, together with square spindles to two opposing sides, on a lower tier with swagged aprons, on cabriole shaped legs, united by crossed stretchers with a circular roundel-moulded boss at the centre, this singular occasional table will charm in any elegantly-furnished home and is sure to attract the appreciative attention of your guests. Dimensions of Top 43cm x 42cm (17" x 16.5") & Height 71.5cm (28.25"). This piece dates from the earliest decades of the 20thC, so you may expect the mature character & patina of age, together with minor wear & tear commensurate with normal use but, otherwise, it's in good, clean & sound condition, ready to use in your home.
