Description

A fantastic antique Edwardian inlaid mahogany revolving bookcase. This was made in England, it dates from around the 1900-1910 period. It is of superb quality with a beautiful and useful design. The mahogany has a gorgeous colour tone and grain patterns, there are wonderful satin wood inlays on all sides. This has lots of storage space for books and objects, the bookcase spins on a solid mahogany cross framed base. We have had this recently re-polished, the condition is excellent for its age.
