Description

A pretty antique solid silver photo frame, with lovely fancy bow detail to the top. The rest of the frame is square edged and bordered in smooth polished silver which wraps over the edge of the wooden support. A delightful small frame. The frame is glazed and has a red fabric silk backing. The back is in varnished wood with the original stand and hinge. Clear hallmarks are visible on one side for the Birmingham Assay Office with a date mark for 1923, the lion passant indicating sterling silver and the maker's mark S & M for Birmingham silversmiths Sanders & Mackenzie. Condition: In good antique condition, the silver is undented. There are a few fine scratches to the bottom right of the silver frame, not very noticeable but mentioned for accuracy. Measurements: Frame height: 12.3 (not including bow detail), width: 9.7 cm Window size 12.1 x 8.2 x cm. Will fit a 10.7 x 8.2 cm image (approx 3 1/2" x 4") Weight: 136 grams Weights and measurements are approximate.
