Description

This fabulous SILVER TEA CADDY of Bombe form was imported and assayed in London by John George Smith in 1899. This superb Tea Caddy has a decoration of Neoclassical Scenes on all sides and a lift off lid with Lion finial. To the base are three pseudo-French hallmarks. The caddy was almost certainly manufactured in Hanau and marks of this kind were not uncommon on those pieces. In excellent condition, with little sign of use or wear, this stunning Silver Tea Caddy would enhance any silver collection.
