Description

An impressive antique George V sterling silver five-light candelabrum which has a plain octagonal shaped solid silver base and a tall column of the same octagonal shape design. The silver branches sit neatly on top of the column and it has been made in such a way that it could also be used as a three-light candelabrum if so desired. This solid silver candelabrum has been made to the highest standard and would make a wonderful table feature. It remains in excellent condition. Overall height: 52.3 cms (20.6") Height of column: 30.8 cms (12.1") Spread of branches: 38.7 cms (15.2") Weight: 75.8 troy ounces (2,368 grams) It was hallmarked in Sheffield for 1925 by James Deakin & Sons. Complimentary postage is included within the price of this candelabrum. If you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact us.
