Description

Fabulous Large Mouseman 1930's Oak Refectory Dining Table. A lovely example of a solid English oak refectory dining table by Mouseman. All a wonderful original colour and the signature Mouseman mouse is a lovely large one. This earlier Mouseman dining table has a far more individual feel to it, rather than the standardised models that are more recently made. The thickness to the oak timbers is greater in the earlier models like this one and the mice are larger and more unique, where as later ones are pretty much identical and less characterful. This large Mouseman 1930's oak refectory dining table is in beautiful condition, the adzed top has the earlier pegged through top method, not seen on later versions. Dimensions Height: 73cm (28.97") Width: 183cm (72.62") Depth: 84cm (33.33")
