Description

A fine example of a 19thc paper-mache snuff box, hand decorated with a humorous scene of two soldiers trying to persuade a pig to come with them...as you can see by the picture, the pig will have none of it and is going in the opposite direction...this fine box is in perfect condition with a natural colour and was probably made by a Napoleonic POW French. C1800-20. Provenance of Brian Hawtin collection.
