Description

Georgian Mahogany 'D' End Dining Table. A fantastic solid Mahogany 'D' End dining table. We bring to you the most marvellous example of an Georgian solid Mahogany 'D' End dining table of believed to be made around C1810. The table consists of 2 'D' End console tables which could be used either side of a large hallway or dining room and brought together to make an 8 seater dining table, with the option of dropping the leaf down to create a 4 seater. The very usable table has solid Mahogany single plank tops, with a square edge which sits above its impressive curved Flame Mahogany frieze incorporating Rosewood Boxwood and ebony stringing. The table stands on square tapering Mahogany legs to lovely brass square cup castors on each leg. The table has the most idyllic Mahogany colour from being sympathetically restored, carefully cleaned, revived and French polished in our workshop so is in stunning condition. The table still shows desired areas of patina amongst its beautiful glazed French Polished finish. The table is without any sagging and maintains a flat top when extended, the leaves are held together via its original dowels and Brass table forks. The table is solid w...
