

SA1102700

Taxidermy – Fox mask by Peter Spicer & Sons

Price

GBP 675

| USD $920 | EUR 788

Item Reference: SA1102700

Date of manufacture: 1930

Description

Mounted on polished oak shield with ivorine plaque to front "E.H.Hook Green 7.11.31" Additionally, to the rear of shield is a typed letter with a full description of the hunts chase, along with an old "Maymark's of Tunbridge Wells" depository label (see images), plus "P Spicer & Sons Taxidermists Leamington" will be embossed (now hidden by the letter) and Spicers four-digit serial/stock book number 4843 which is still just visible above this note. For more information on this remarkable Victorian Taxidermy firm who has never been surpassed in the modelling of fox masks, see "A Record of Spicer's" a book covering the history of this famous firm privately published by myself back in 2001.

Internal Ref: 24560

Seller Details

Kendall House Antiques Ltd.

Kendall House High Street Chipping Campden Gloucestershire GL55
6AG 7 United Kingdom

Tel: 07880 602715

International Tel: +44 7880 602715

