Description

1 Fine Historic British 20th Century Oil Painting Portrait Sir Philip Grey Egerton, 15th Baronet 1885-1962 Red Coat High Sheriff Of Cheshire Follower Herbert James Gunn. Impress your guests & clients in your home or office with this Aristocratic evening hunting portrait masterpiece. Title Portrait of Sir Philip Grey Egerton, 15th Baronet (1885-1962) wearing his evening red hunting jacket with white bow" C1950 Follower Of Sir Herbert James Gunn RA. Subject portrait of the known British aristocrat landowner Sir Philip Grey Egerton 15th Baronet. He is in half length front profile view, wearing his red evening hunting dinner jacket, with a white bow tie & a white pocket square. Also with a smart white shirt, he is wearing his glasses & has a light grey moustache, bald head with side hair. He is facing the viewer with a slight smile on his face in a happy mood. Monogram signed by the British school artist F.E, follower in the style of Herbert James Gunn. In our opinion this is a rather fine portrait example. Circa mid 20th century 1950. Medium oil on canvas. Set in the original gilt wood frame which enhances this work further. Frame is great display size being 66 cm wide and 7...
