Description

A lovely farmhouse table dating from the late 19th Century. It has a planked pine top and stands on turned legs with a single drawer. The legs have their original dark stained finish and the pine top has a lovely patina and nice mellow colour with a smooth waxed finish. It is a good size, big enough to seat 4-6 comfortably, and a good height to sit at with ample leg clearance of 24" (61cm) all the way around. It is in good condition for its age and is strong and sturdy. There are various signs of age and use and some old marks and knocks on the top surface and around the legs but nothing untoward or detrimental. It has been lightly cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
