Description

A highly decorative egg cruet set dating to the late Victorian era, c.1880. Made from silverplate, there is lots of detailing, always appealing and highly sought-after. The tray stands on four very pretty cast feet with the shape being carried through to the pierced border of the tray, the four holders that contain the spoons and rims of the four egg cups. The interior of the cups are beautifully gilded. The cruet comes complete with four spoons. All in excellent condition, the tray measuring 7 3/4" x 6" x 10" tall to the top of the handle.
