Description

This is a pair of tall antique candlesticks. An English, silver plated candle sconce, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910. Elegant Edwardian candlesticks with a bright appearance and fine detail. Displaying a desirable aged patina and in original order. Superb, highly reflective silver plate presents beautifully. Some light copper hues showing from decades of gentle use. Ornate foliate relief detail decorates the sconce, upper collar and base. Each with a removable sconce offering a nozzle diameter of 23mm (1"). Wide quarterfoil base dressed with the original emerald green baize. Engraved to the footer with 'Silver on Copper'. This is an attractive pair of tall antique candlesticks. Ideal for the mantelpiece or upon the dining table as a centrepiece. Delivered polished and ready to display.
