Description

This is a very pretty Victorian cast and brass single bed of platform design in good original condition that dates from around 1870. The bed is in its original attractive forest green paint finish which is remarkably in really great condition. The head board has a lovely design with curved iron scrollwork and castings and the original solid brass knobs. This has a new sturdy timber lattice base so simply requires a standard single mattress. A very smart bed ready for use. The bed measures 104 cms high at the head and is 93 cms wide by 190 cms long.
