Description

A charming French Antique Marble Topped and Leathered Washstand. Having a wonderful veined rouge marble top which features a gracefully contoured lip with rounded corners, designed to complement and align with the columned legs beneath. Below the marble top, two drawers are seamlessly set within the apron, maintaining the cupboard's elegant lines and providing functional storage, both clad in decorative leather with delicate turned knobs. There is additional storage below with a double cupboard with inset shelves. Again the doors have decorative leather panels with central urns surrounded with pretty scrolling foliage. The smart ring turned column legs with fluted centres completes the look. Working lock and key. Ideal as a stand alone piece in a kitchen, hallway or lounge but would also make a wonderful statement piece as a bathroom or cloakroom vanity if paired with a smart sink or basin. in good overall condition with wear commensurate with age. A good clean marble top, wear but no losses to the leather. usual dinks and marks you would expect.
