Description

This is a beautiful large antique William IV mahogany extending dining table, circa 1830 in date. This amazing table can seat sixteen people in comfort and has been hand-crafted from beautiful solid flame mahogany. The beautiful flame mahogany top is rectangular in shape and has six original leaves which can be added or removed as required to suit the occasion. The leaves can be easily removed, using the original brass clips, and stored away when not required. The table is raised on six substantial hand carved tulip cusp reeded legs that terminate in their original brass cup castors. The chairs shown in the photographs are not included in the price but are available if required, we have various sets of chairs in stock that would suit this table. This stunning dining table will stand out in your dining or conference room and will definitely become a key piece in your furnishing collection.
