Description

An exceptional fine and impressive antique pair of blue enamel and 18 carat yellow gold cufflinks - boxed; part of our diverse collection of antique cufflinks. These fine and impressive antique cufflinks have been crafted in 18ct yellow gold. The links have a square form, ornamented to the plateau with impressive finely detailed blue hot enamel. The cufflinks articulate via a flat connector bar to the reverse. The links are each engraved with '18ct' to the reverse and have been independently tested using state of the art technology (Niton XL2 Analyzer) and verified as 18 carat gold. These antique gold and enamel cufflinks are fitted to the original hinged leatherette box with velvet and satin interior, securing with a hinged catch. The interior of the cover bears the retailer's mark 'Established 1883, C. H. Moody, Watchmaker, Jeweller & Silversmith, High Street, Crewe'. Such examples in this perfect and fine condition are becoming increasingly difficult to locate. Condition These impressive antique 1930's cufflinks are exceptional quality, set with impressive blue hot enamel panels; the enamel is in perfect condition. The cufflinks are an exceptional gauge of gold...
