Description

This is an antique hall table. A Scottish, mahogany console, side table or buffet server, dating to the William IV period, circa 1835. Superb example of Scottish craftsmanship, with a tasteful appearance. Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order throughout. Select stocks resplendent in caramel hues with fine grain interest. Good consistent colour throughout to the wax polish finish. Apex form to the low up stand, with a lobed medallion to the centre. Generous top surface finished with a chamfered edge. Block shoulders enclose a deep apron, with concealed drawer to the right hand side. Standing upon tapering legs with lobed knees and twist fluting over bun feet. This is an appealing antique hall table, with lovely colour and tasteful accents. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the home.
