Description

A beautifully made mid 19thc "child's" oak barrel, also known as a costral / kiver , banded in brass and with a nice shape and of a small size...it would have been used for juice / cider ...as often the children would help their father on the land...or to be taken on walks and picnics in the countryside....very nice condition with an excellent colour... English C1860-90.

Internal Ref: MS 8177
