Description

An 18th-century Swedish Gustavian corner cupboard, featuring an original dry-scraped finish that reveals a delicate patina with subtle tones of white and light grey. The elegant design includes a gracefully rounded top with ornate carved detailing, enhancing the overall aesthetic. The cupboard's doors showcase vertical paneling, complemented by a simple yet refined arrangement of decorative motifs. Each element contributes to the piece's rustic charm, embodying the essence of Swedish craftsmanship. With its thoughtfully designed proportions, this corner cupboard is an ideal storage solution that fits seamlessly into any room, whether in a country home or a modern setting, serving as both a functional piece and a striking focal point.
