Description

This is a tall antique seated coat stand. An English, Oak hall rack with valet mirror, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910. Superb reception hall piece with a generous height of 6' 7". Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order throughout. Select oak stocks present fine grain interest and rich caramel hues. Quality mirror plate with minimal foxing and bright appearance. Exceptional versatility, offering 8 coat hooks, a bench, mirror and boot storage. Each of the attractive coat hooks a treat of Art Nouveau taste. Generously sized mirror offers a diameter of 39.5cm (15.5"). Useful seat, ideal for when putting on a pair of shoes from the internal space. Distinctive arms with pass through hoops to the drip tray and stick stand respectively. For drainage, the cast iron drip tray can be removed as required. Enamel dealer's plaque to the lid reverse for A.E. Carter & Sons, London. Attractive sash apron to the lower valance, with bracket feet to each corner. This is a delightful antique seated coat stand, with a broad range of useful features and presented with quality oak and fine craftsmanship. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the reception hall. D...
