Description

Oil on Canvas showing a view of a working boat on a river on a hazy morning. The painting is signed George Lambilotte (1915 - 1998) and mounted in a dark gilt carved frame with slip. Lambilotte, who was born in the UK, trained at the Academies of Namur and Brussels with Alfred Bastien and Frans Smeers. After living for a while in Brussels, he settled in Godinne in 1955. He painted many Ardennes landscapes, but also painted portraits and still lifes. He used a generous brush stroke and clear and luminous palette. In Godinne, he found his inspiration in the Meuse valley. He was a member of the "L'Esquisse" circle in Namur and exhibited there in 1934 and 1937. Dimensions - 62 x 44 cm
