Description

This is a fabulous antique Victorian games compendium and tantalus, circa 1880 in date. It consists of three cut crystal liquor bottles with stoppers with a pair of port glasses, and a pair of sherry glasses in the underside of the lid, a gold plated pair of coasters, a gold plated tray all housed in a magnificent mahogany casket with shell inlaid decoration. There is a secret sprung drawer that pops out when you press the small brass button hidden behind the central decanter, it contains two packs of playing cards and a pair of dice and the markers for the cribbage board. Above the drawer there is a brass cribbage score board, with inlaid decoration on mahogany on the reverse. The fold down section is fitted with a useful gold plated serving tray above a drawer containing more playing cards. It is fitted with the original working high quality Bramah lock complete with key. Condition: In really excellent condition having been beautifully cleaned, polished and waxed in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation.
