Description

A Victorian period, mahogany extending dining table, 7' 9' in length, Circa 1880. Featuring an extendable oblong shaped top with rounded corners and thumb moulded edge. The top extends by way of two additional leaves, wind out screw mechanism with telescopic stretchers and original winder handle. The plain frieze with lipped lower edge. All raised on well proportioned ring turned and reeded legs, on brass cup castors with ceramic wheels. Comfortably seating 10 people, one at either end and four down each side. A quality dining table. Fully serviced and in very good condition, now very much ready for use. Dimensions: This table measures approximately 73 cm (28.75") tall, 236 cm (93") long fully extended, 120 cm (47.5") wide. The leaves measure approximately 46 cm (18") and 49 cm (19.25") wide, and can be put in together or just one. Condition: Please see the pictures for details of the items condition. - This table is in a very good condition, commensurate with its age, and is structurally very sound and sturdy. There are some odd minor marks and blemishes, in keeping with use, namely to the legs. There are 4 repairs, to the top and moulding. All very well done and t...
