Description

Offered with FREE courtesy two man delivery is this real treasure from the 1930s is this Art Deco tallboy . On first viewing this piece one can't not be impressed by the obvious quality and reduced size , made from solid oak for the carcass with a beautifully heavily figured walnut book paged veneers to the exterior, it just oozes style and luxury. A very solid, heavy piece that will last any new owners lifetime and beyond. The doors both open smoothly with a latch to secure. Brass hinges all working well and not corroded. Lots of useful and generous sized storage within, with two very generously sized open shelves and three full length drawers to the base. We've given this piece a professional and full restoration . It's free from any damage and is in very good showroom condition with a beautiful polished finish.
