Description

A Victorian mahogany piano stool of circular form with a finely upholstered cream suede seat over a beautifully carved pedestal leading to three splayed legs terminating in particularly well executed lion paw feet. Very good condition, structurally all in good order with just some attractive aged wear and colour. The rise and fall mechanism no longer works so the seat simply swivels in place at the height shown. English, circa 1880. H: 48 Seat Diameter: 35 cm Width at legs: 41 cm
