Description

A charming country oak side table dating from the late 18th / early 19th Century. It has a nicely moulded edge around the top and it stands on square chamfered legs. It has a single deep drawer with pierced brass plate handle. It is in good original condition and the oak has a lovely patina. It is strong and sturdy and the drawer opens smoothly. There are some signs of age and use, some old marks and knocks here and there and a small repair to the tip of one leg but nothing detrimental or untoward. There are some signs of historic worm in the legs which has all been treated as a precaution. The table has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
