Description

A stunning, fine and impressive vintage 1950s 8.24 carat diamond (total) and platinum ring made by Boucheron; part of our diamond jewellery/estate jewelry collections. This stunning, fine and impressive vintage Boucheron diamond ring has been crafted in platinum. The pierced decorated six-claw setting displays a principal natural light yellow 6.08ct transitional modern brilliant round cut diamond. This large feature stone is encompassed with an undulating array of twenty-four baguette cut diamonds, totalling 2.16cts. The elevated, bifurcating ring shoulders integrate with the main setting and conjoin to form the plain ring shank. This stunning and rare 1950s jewellery was crafted by the renowned maker Boucheron, and bears the signature to the underside of the bridge setting. This stunning engagement ring has been independently tested using state of the art technology (Niton XL2 Analyzer) and verified as platinum. The diamond engagement ring is supplied with a European Diamond Report (EDR) certificate for the principal diamond, in addition to an independent diamond grading report card for the supporting stones.
